“ To The Family of Mr. Joe Wilbur Lewis I would like to express my deepest sympathy to each of you. Although we are not acquainted with one another, we are acquainted with the pain when our loved ones fall asleep in death. Jesus taught us to pray for God's Kingdom to come here upon the earth as it is in the heavens. The fact that the the heavens is peaceful, no sickness, death, etc. is surely a place where we would like to be. So when we pray for these conditions to come on the earth, we are asking God to restore the earth back to its original condition when he created the first Man and Woman. That Kingdom will be a reality here on the earth. The Scriptures promises that the day is soon to come in which death will be no more and that Almighty God Jehovah will wipe away the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever. He promises too that your loved ones, my loved ones and many others will hear his voice and come out of the memorial tombs graves to live in heaven-like conditions right here on the earth.##imported-begin##Annette Pegues##imported-end##

“ It has been a priviledge to be touched by the life of Joe Lewis. There are not many people who have had as profound an impact on my life as Joe has. He set a wonderful example for me to follow as a man of God and I only wish I could come close to following that example. Joe was a dedicated, tireless worker for the Kingdom of God. I watched Joe give so much of himself to New Home Baptist Church. New Home Baptist Church will miss Joe, our community will miss Joe, I will miss Joe. Joe Lewis is FOREVER with the Lord and I'm sure if he could, he would say, "Come see what I see." My prayers are with Pauline and the family.##imported-begin##Rudy Gerald##imported-end##
