“ Dear Todd family, I am sorry to hear of the death of Joel. I send my heartfelt condolences to the family and many friends. When we lose a dear loved one to the enemy death, we may go through a series of reactions- numbness, disbelief, guilt, and anger. The Bible assures us that:” God is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves.” Turning to our loving Heavenly Father in prayer can help us to cope with the death of someone we love. God, through his powerful Holy Spirit can equip you with "power beyond what is normal" to go from one day to the next. There is probably nothing that can make your pain go away, but relying upon God, can make it easier to bear. the wonderful promises from the scriptures can help us to recover. The Bible promises that "there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."(Acts 24:15)(John 5:28-29). So one day in the very near future, we will be able to see our beloved family members again. Isn't this comforting to know? When Jesus Christ was here on the earth, he proved that he has the power to bring the dead back to life. On one occasion, he brought his friend Lazarus back to life.(John 11:11-44). We can be assure that he will indeed do the same for our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. I certainly hope that theses few words from my heart will comfort and encourage the family during this difficult time. Here are some additional scriptures that I am sure you will also find comforting: Revelation 21:3-4, 1 Corinthians 15:26, Isaiah 33:24, Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19.##imported-begin##Sandra##imported-end##
