“ My mother, Elizabeth Murphy, met John and Catherine at Inlet Coastal Resort where she also was a resident. They always enjoyed the time they spent chatting on the front porch and back porches.

My mother moved to Watercrest and John and Catherine followed. John was a real character and I personally enjoyed talking with him at both locations.

They were a beautiful couple and now are together again in heaven. My prayers are with them and May they Rest In Peace.

Condolences to the family.

*Sincerely,
Susan Murphy and family*
