“ Carol, and Family,

I am so sorry to hear about John. As you may remember, he was one of my most favorite people to come into the office when I worked with Bill Hedgepath and even now while I am working with Ben Thompson. I know this is really hard on you all, but just wanted to share my condolences with you and let you know just how much John was appreciated and loved in our town. May God watch over you all during this time of grief.

*Love,
