

John C. Revel

January 27, 2008

Mr. John C. Revel, 82, died Sunday, January 27, 2008 at Conway Medical Center. Mr. Revel was born in Dayton, Kentucky, a son of the late John Clarence and Lillian Adelle Revel. He was a U.S. Navy veteran, and as a Navy pharmacists mate, served in the European and Pacific Theaters in World War II. He was a graduate of the University of Kentucky, briefly taught high school history, and spent most of his career as an insurance executive. He was a member of the Carolina LST Association and a member of the Ohio LST association as well. He was the former VP of Claims at Ohio State Life Insurance Co. Mr. Revel is survived by his wife, Norma Jean Revel of Forestbrook; daughter, Linda Dietach of Beloit, WI; four grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren. Visitation will be 6 to 8 p.m. on Tuesday, January 29, 2008 at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel. Interment will be in Fort Thomas, KY. Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society, 950 48th Ave. North, Ste. 101, Myrtle Beach, SC 29577.

Tribute Wall

“ On behalf of the Ohio LST Association shipmates, the Officers, Board and President Walker Huffman, we extend our deepest sympathies to Norma, Linda and the family. John will be sorely missed by all of us. He was a wonderful shipmate, a dear friend and an important part of our LST family. His service to his Country and fellowman will be ever remembered. He was truly part of the fiber and being of the Greatest Generation. May God grant John's family comfort and peace in the midst of sorrow.
