“ Jackie, John and Barb, We are so sorry for your loss and the pain you are feeling. It is our hope that in the days to come you are able to look past the sadness and remember all the wonderful times you shared as family and friends, near and far. I have so many wonderful memories of my own with all of you from the time we were kids and into adulthood. John was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather and surrogate father to so many of us. We was loved by all who knew him and we will keep him in our hearts forever. Please know you are not traveling this road alone and your extended families are here for you any time you need us. Today, tomorrow, always. We love you and wish you peace. Brenda, Scott, Kyle and Ryan McIntosh###imported-begin###Brenda Herr McIntosh###imported-end###

“ Jackie, Johnnie, and Barbie: Even though many years have passed since we last visited with each other, as soon as mom told me about John, it instantly took me back to some really happy memories sooo many years ago. Joe and I hope that in the days ahead, you and your family will find comfort in sharing your memories of John with family and friends.
