

John Coles

February 12, 1932 - August 16, 2012

Murrells Inlet...John Edmunds Coles, 80, died Thursday, August 16, 2012 at his residence.

Surviving are: his wife of 51 years, Jean Coles of Murrells Inlet; two daughters, Elizabeth "Buff" Coles of Charleston and Harriett Coles Crockard (Paul) of Birmingham, AL; two grandsons, Porter and John Crockard.

Mr. Coles was born in Conway, son of the late John Edmunds and Winifred Holliday Coles. He was a graduate of Conway High School, The Citadel in 1954. Mr. Coles was a US Army Veteran. He went into Banking for a number of years and then into the Farm Credit System until his retirement. He was a loving husband, father and grandfather. He was predeceased by one sister, Annette Coles.

The family would like to thank Mr. John's faithful and loving caregivers, Corey Lawrence, Tyrhonda Priest, Sheena Reed, Abbie McKnight and Nellie Lance. In addition, the family would like to thank Tideland's Hospice for their service and care.

A graveside service will be held 4:00 PM Saturday at Lakeside Cemetery with Rev. Harold Lewis officiating.

The family will receive friends from 2:30-3:30 PM Saturday at the funeral home.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorials be sent to a charity of one's choice.

“ Dear Family, We are so sorry to here of Mr Johnny's passing. He has been as good a friend as any one could ever ask for. We have known him our entire lives. He was a kind and wonderful person. He was so down to earth, yet he was so knowledgeable about so many things. We have been truly blessed to have known him. We will miss him stopping by to visit and just talk. We will always remember him. Our prayers are with you. Freda And Jerry Hardee(Jerry's Garage and Cycle Shop).
