

John Edward Potter

February 18, 2010

Conway--Mr. John Edward Potter, age 80, of Myrtle Trace, died February 18, 2010 at Conway Medical Center. Mr. Potter was born in Ridgewood, NY, the son of the late John H. Potter and Gladys Dierlam Potter. A devoted and loving father and grandparent, he was an Engineer with AT&T for 37 years before retiring to SC. Mr. Potter was an accomplished pianist, who loved playing at Myrtle Trace clubhouse events, nursing homes, family gatherings, and community functions. He was a Veteran of the US Army, and was grateful for the friendships he enjoyed in Conway. He is survived by a son, John Potter, Jr. and wife Amy of Myrtle Beach; two daughters, Deborah Valencia of Myrtle Beach and Sandra Potter of Pennsylvania. Also surviving are three grandchildren, Emily Jane Potter, and Julia Rose and Gabriella Sophia Valencia. Funeral services will be held Friday at 11:00 AM at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel. Burial will follow in Hillcrest Cemetery. The family will receive friends Thursday from 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM at the funeral home. Sign a guestbook at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel is serving the family.

“ We lost our good friend John Potter. John was always willing to play for Myrtle Trace. He was a special friend to me. We use to kid, I almost ran John down on his bike, I would say "no one would forgive me for running down the piano man". He would laugh, he was always gracious. John will be missed.##imported-begin##Sheilah Reynolds##imported-end##
