

John Joseph Garrity Jr.

February 18, 1944 - October 13, 2021

Conway...

John J. Garrity, Jr., known to his family and close friends as "Jay", died peacefully at home in Conway, SC on Wednesday, October 13, 2021 at the age of 77.

Jay was born on February 18, 1944 on Staten Island, NY, a son of the late John Joseph Garrity, Sr. and Alice Powers Garrity. After attending St. Peters High School, he joined the US Navy, where he served for four years, and then went on to work for 42 years in the burglar alarm business.

Jay is survived by his wife of 54 years, Frances C. Garrity (nee Reinhold); two daughters, Colleen Boyington (Jay) and Kathleen Penna (Scott); five grandchildren, Alan Hagist, Madison Penna, Riley Penna, Brianna Boyington, and Robert Penna (Tyler); a brother, Jimmy Garrity; three sisters, Joan Higgins, Judy Julian, and Rita Takach; three brothers-in-law, Robby, Jimmy, and Charlie Reinhold; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and other extended family.

An intimate service will be performed at St. James Catholic Church Columbarium in Conway.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Regency SouthernCare Hospice Services, 600 Garden City Connector, Suite A, Murrells Inlet, SC 29576 or to the American Cancer Society, PO Box 22478, Oklahoma City, OK, 73123.
