“ We were so sorry to hear of John’s passing. John lived across the street from us for many years and one Christmas Eve, we lost our heat. He didn’t have the part he needed and actually called someone he knew to open their store. He got the part and installed it that night. He was indeed a very special person Joe and Maxine Valunas. ”

“ I was lucky enough to meet him when she was 17. And shortly after that I met the rest of the family they were wonderful people. John had such a caring heart undescrivable. I think if I could describe him in any words it would be he never met a stranger. And it's because of John and Linda that they raise three wonderful beautiful girls that will carry on their legacy and pass that on to their children. And no John that I am still very close to KIM and your girls through Facebook and Linda through Facebook but how lucky I was to kind of be a part of your family and KIM is always gonna be a part of my family my goodness I've known her since she was just got her drivers license. To a wonderful man

“ My brother-in-law John was a very special person. One of my special moments shared with John was when he welcomed me with open arms when I went to live with him and my sister Linda for a brief time. He told me not to worry about anything. I always enjoyed our phone conversations. All of us in the family have many special moments with John. His presence and voice will be missed forever.
