“ To All it has Been a year tomorrow afternoon. And i know that nobody has forgotten, but i just wanted to say to those who may not know that Johnny probaly saved my life and others in our family that may not even be born yet. Johnny had an electrical problem with his heart called long QT syndrom and since his passing everyone in our family has been tested, and as some of you all know i have the same disease. And only because of Johnny did I have surgery to try and correct the problem. And to for that he is my HERO. I just wanted to let everyone know that there is a reason for eveything and evrything has it reason. Also johnny was an Organ Donor who has also saved a number of children through out this past year. And anyone should be proud to have known him; I know my family is trully greatful and blessed. Johnny's Big Sister, Misty Elane Japarks###imported-begin###Misty Japarks###imported-end##

As I sat back tonite I remembered our good times and I wanted to cry.I wish i could see you and to tell you all of the things i should have told you before you had to go away. Some ppl. are affraid to express how they feel but i don't care i will forever love you with all of my heart and you will always be that one special someone. I hope you know how much everyone thinks about you. we all loved you so much and it was too hard to have to face the fact that you were gone and if we had an arrgument we wouldn't be able to change what we may have said. I know that is how it was for me. I wish i could go back and fix my mistake but instead i learned from it. I will never stay mad at someone b/c you never know what will happen in 20min. or in an hour! I can only wait for that one day when we meet again. I know you will be easy to pick out of the crowd, you will have hunting clothes on and it will be impossible for everyone around you to NOT have a smile on their face. When I was at the wake and I saw your moms pain I could feel it myself. Im not trying to say I was Johnny's best friend but we were really good friends and I wish I could just bring him back today . “ Johnny~ hey darlin... i know youve probably heard this a million times by now, but you will always have a place in my heart. You were such a special kid and i didnt know anyone who had met you that didnt like you. You were friendly to everyone no matter who they were and its hard to find people that are like that anymore. It's real hard to think about never seeing you on this world again, but i know i will see you in heaven. im trying not to think about it as God taking you away from us, but to think of it as a very special blessing just to have you as a friend even if it was only for a short time. I love you Johnny and i will never forget your sweet little smile. Our redneck angel forever... ~~Courtney###imported-begin##Courtney Earl###imported-end##

“ *Johnny~ I will never forget you! I remember you at the baseball games playing Aynor and other schools! At the skating ring you was always making friends and helping everyone that needed help. You were always happy and excited. Ever since you died things have not been the same. I really wish that would not happen to you. I ask God everynight why was it you instead of me, but I guess there was a reason for it to you, my day must be later on. I never taught that you would be gone one morning when I woke. I have always taught that you would have made it longer than you did. I know that I miss you and I know that all your other friends miss you also. I know that you didn't think that all these people carried about you, but the truth is that we care about you a whole lot!! I can't wait to see you in Heaven! Johnny I will never forget about you!!! “ My sweet little Angel Johnny, I dunno how I'm gonna make it w/o u here! U held such a special place in my heart and now it has been takin away from me. When I close my eyez and lay down I think oh my goodness how could god take such a sweet little boy from my life, that was just ment to be my whole world! But as I look back on it, and think to myself, obviously he just wanted that person that ment so much to me, to be rite there with him! I luv u Johnny! And I PROMISE I will NEVER 4 get YOU! As I walk up to his casket, I think to myself. "How could he be gone when it looks like he'z just resting there." As I keep getting closer the tears start to fall. And I keep thinking over and over in my mind "Why couldn't it have just been me!!!" As I look over to my left, where his mother happened to be standing and w/ my eyez full of tears I said "I'm so very sorry" she reaches over and gives me a big hug while rubbing my back..... Then I look back at my friend Johnny and say my good byes while placing my bracelet filled w/ crosses upon his chest, I back away slowly and just started to cry even more.....And now I wonder, should I have really said my good-byes because I KNOW we will meet in a better place but yet at the perfect time!!! Johnny R.I.P All my sympathy goes out to his family! I'm very sorry that yall lost him, but don't worry you'll see him again someday!###imported-begin##Veneshia White###imported-end##

Everyday Johnny would have a joke that would get the entire class in a laughing mood. If I was having a bad day he would always bring me up.
