“ I would like to express my sympathy to the family. I hope you are finding comfort in the time you spent with your dear loved one. Please find comfort in the hope expressed in the Bible at Revelation 21:3,4 where it tells us that mourning, pain, and death will be things of the past. I hope you find comfort in this hope. Feel free to email me to comment or if you have questions. Again, please accept my condolences.##imported-begin##Margaret##imported-end##

“ Our days are fleeting and we never know which will be the last. John was a very unique person who loved his friends and went out of the way to show it. I wish we could have had him with us longer but the greater plan will always prevail despite our inability to understand. Rest in peace my friend. Bright blessings to your family and may they find comfort in the happiest of memories you gifted them with. Peace be unto you.##imported-begin##Marty##imported-end##

“ TO John's Family, I am so sorry for your loss. Myself and the other girls at Movado have been wondering why he would grace our lives for just this short time.? I know that I will live a lot more, love a lot more, laugh a lot more, and appreciate every second of this short life. I know that is what John would do. God Bless! You all are in my prayers! “ I worked with John at Old Navy From October until 11 days ago. My last day there was the last time I saw him and I was shocked when I received the news of his passing. He was a good kid who was friendly and got along with everyone. He always looked like he was having fun and enjoying life and had a lot of energy. I only saw him laugh and smile and I enjoyed being in his presence. I wish I got to know him better than I did. He left us much too soon and he will be missed by the many friends and co-workers he left behind.##imported-begin##Dan Mayo##imported-end##

“ I never really got to know John but I use to see him in school and said hello to him every once in a while on the bus. I had just heard about him from my friend Brandy gainey. She was talking about moving in with him this past week. Although I may have not known him as well as his closer friends did, this hits my heart and I can't believe it. God bless you John. You were always so cheerful and nice to me. You have many people who love you. Rest in peace my dear.##imported-begin##Caila##imported-end##
