“ Sara and family,

I'm sad to hear of your loss. You have been strong during the past year. I trust your father knew how much you loved him and how proud of him you were. I have been praying for your family and will continue to lift you up in prayer. Much love and condolences, Angie Pharr

“ Mike was a kind, hardworking man who had the courage and heart of a lion. He fought the good fight and never gave up. He will be remembered for his fortitude and his strength.

He demonstrated what it means to be a great father every day. Mike's love for his children was a marvelous example of what it means to be a true dad. He loved them with all of his heart. He rejoiced in their successes and provided comfort to them in times of difficulty. He has given them one of God's greatest gifts- a lifetime of precious memories and the certain knowledge that they were loved unconditionally.

“ You know our love and thoughts are with your family.. I remember how Mike's arrival was a celebrated event. Remember how his grandfather said if you are going to call him Mike, why did you name him John? Mike or John he was loved.

With fond memories,

“ Mike was the best man at my marriage to his grandfather, Fred Lorey. Every time I got to spend time around him, he was a happy, warm, fun presence. I remember him as kind to everybody, always ready to laugh, but also a quiet strength about him - a very special person.
