“ Uncle John L. & Auntee Pam, I can't imagine what you are going through right now. I know how bad it's hurting me to know my little bro is gone. Each day it's like a dream, that I can't wake up from. I loved Jay like my little brother. I still remember all the wonderful times we had at the beach, the weeks I spent at your house every summer. Words just can't express what I'm feeling. It's a feeling that will never go away. He was a wonderful man, just like his dad. Jay was caring and would do anything for anyone. God has a wonderful angel in Heaven. Someday I will see my little brother again. May God be with you. You know if you need us for anything you can call. We Love You! “ John and Pam, When we face the mystery of death, we are confronted with many questions, doubts, and regrets. You both should have none of these when it comes to Jay. He was an extraordinary young man, who typified excellence, charm, and human kindness all at once. He was all of these because of you. You can let him go peacefully into God's arms knowing you were the best you could possibly be for him. We will miss him very much.##imported-begin##Ken, Barbara, Ashley, and Amanda Busz##imported-end##

“ Jay and I just became buddies this semester when he arrived here at C of C. We sat next to each other in a finance. After one of the first days of class, frazzled from our finance lecture, we went out for a drink and from that day forward we were friends. Jay was a good guy and I knew our friendship was just beginning. I feel lucky to have met him and to have had the chance to spend time with him. Jay will always be missed.##imported-begin##Patrick Hanlon##imported-end##

“ March 31, 2009 Dear John and Pam, We just heard about the loss of Jay on the 28th of March, and we have been trying to contact you since that day. We want you to know that we know how you feel. No words can help the pain that you are going through at this time. But we want you to know that we are keeping you all in our prayers and how much you all mean to us, and how much we love Jay. He was the son we never had, and when you all hurt we hurt with you. John and Pam, if you need to talk We are always here to listen. Please give us a call at 304-743-4060 anytime day or night no matter the time. And we mean that with all of our hearts. We love you guys and miss you. Please get in touch with us as soon as you can. We want you to know that you raised a great son and were very good parents. There was nothing that you wouldn't do for your family and others, and we are here to do the same. You are in our thoughts and prayers once again, love you all. love always,

“ Pam and John L, Jay, with his sweet smile and great personality, will always be remembered. All three of you have touched so many hearts with your love and kindness which will not be forgotten but will be treasured by all, especially at this time of devastation. Rick and I cannot imagine what you are going thru at this time nor even know what to say. We are so saddened and very sorry for your loss of Jay. Both of you are in our constant thoughts and prayers. The boys are trying to organize a remembrance/memorial in honor of Jay. I just wanted to make sure you knew and if you all would be able to come, i will let them know so that they can plan accordingly. Hopefully this will help them to accept what has happened to Jay and be a time of sharing all of those great memories thru their school years. I love you both and miss seeing you. My cell is 304-638-4869, email is osu74sdj@yahoo.com , if there is anything that i can do for you, please do not hesitate to contact me - or if you would just like to talk, please call.
