“ Mirk was a very special person and will remain so to all who knew him. We shared much together over these may years through the good times and the not so good times. We both had a love for fishing and had spent many hours in the ocean together. He shall be missed and our prayers to his family##imported-begin##John and Peggy Nagy##imported-end##

“ Of couse I remember "Mirk" from high school. Later he worked for the Atantic Refining Richfield Co in downtown Philly. I got to know him well there. A reunion or two, then he came to my home in Colorado for a one evening visit. Now he's gone. Springfield has lost one of its finest.##imported-begin##Al Garrett##imported-end##

“ I was a Penn State graduate, and came to know Mirk through school as well as the result of my also being a Navy pilot. Jack and I had many common interests. I feel fortunate to have talked with him about a year ago. Although he and I likely would not have crossed paths, we did stay in touch by way of email. I will miss the contacts that we had, but the memories will live on The following well known poem is offered when a fellow aviator passes on. "Oh! I have slipped the surly bonds of Earth And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings; Sunward I've climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth of sun-split clouds, — and done a hundred things You have not dreamed of—wheeled and soared and swung High in the sunlit silence. Hov'ring there, I've chased the shouting wind along, and flung My eager craft through footless halls of air.... Up, up the long, delirious, burning blue I've topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace Where never lark nor ever eagle flew— And, while with silent lifting mind I've trod The high untrespassed sanctity of space, Put out my hand, and touched the face of God." “ Jack and I were friends starting in 1941. He lived on Powell Rd. and I lived at Woodland and Powell. We both were in the SHS band for six years; and later, after college, we were both commissioned as Naval Officers, both flying off the Atlantic coast. I have been aware of Jack's health problems, but it comes as a terrible shock to hear that Jack has passed on. He will be in my prayers; and how could anyone ever forget him? He had a wonderful, and unique personality. I extend my best wishes to all of his family. Ed Parris##imported-begin##Edward Parris##imported-end##
