“ To the Johnny Squires family; Please accept my sincerest condolences, sympathy and prayers on the passing of John. Ina, I never had the opportunity to meet your John, but from what you've said about him at Mickey D's, I missed a chance to talk to a "worldly" person. I would have loved to have had the chance to sit down and hear his stories of the old area around here. Not that he could tell true stories of Marion, the swamp fox or of the civil war, but just listening to tales told by people who worked the land is special. My prayers and special intentions are of you and your family. I'm sure that "Johnny" will be surely missed, but he's probably in a much better place than we remaining mortals. GOD bless the Squires family Butch Taladay##imported-begin##Butch Taladay##imported-end##
