

John M. McGraw

June 19, 1939 - March 23, 2017

John M. McGraw, 77 of Myrtle Beach, SC died March 23, 2017.

John M McGraw is the son of the late John Sherman and Bessie McGraw of Atmore, AL. He was a wonderful and loving husband, brother, father, and grandfather. He was also an intelligent, sociable man with a great sense of humor who will be deeply missed. He enjoyed golf, reading and spending time with family. John made a career of the American Red Cross and was committed to providing service to others. He was predeceased in death by his brother, Wayne McGraw.

Survivors include his wife Delia of 44 years; 3 children, Dale McGee, Kimberly Hawthorne, and Donna Ennis; four grandchildren, Bobby and Tayler Ennis, Jordan McGee, and Kate Allen; three great grandchildren, Hayden, Lincoln, and Gabriel; two sisters Lawanna Taylor, and Louise Wyatt; and sister-in-law Joyce McGraw.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the American Red Cross or St. Jude Children's Hospital

Services will be held April 1, 2017 at 4:00 PM at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel in Murrells Inlet with a reception to follow.

“ John will be dearly missed. He was a great neighbor. He loved to tell stories and laugh; and no matter what was going on with him he always had a smile and something good to say. He will be missed. RIP neighbor. Bruce and Dail Ellis

“ My heart is broken on the loss of my friend, John and for my friend, Delia. John was a kind, sweet man, always interesting and interested in what was going on with others. Always upbeat and smiling, I know Smokey met him at the Rainbow Bridge and they are enjoying lots of hamburgers. RIP, my Friend.

“ I will miss John so very much. I was his hospice aide 5 days a week for almost a year. He was such a sweet, kind, loveable man, with a wonderful sense of humor. We had so many laughs. I've become so close to him and Delia. They are like part of my family. It will be so hard not to see him every day. I loved to hear him laugh and see him smile. God Speed on your journey John. You will be missed. I love you.
