“ Marvis and Pat, I well remember your son and the times you shared his hunting and fishing excursions with me. We, as parents, have no understanding of why our children leave us in such sudden ways. Hopefully, it makes us stronger as a family. In a community where you have many friends to be there will be many tears, and that is good. Even now, 15 years later, we ask why. We know God has a place for each of us, but the time will remain silent. Our faith will lead each to that kingdom. Ask God for help and be open to his words. My deepest concerns are with you and your family. TAKE THE TIME OUT TO GRIEVE! The footprints in the sand are many and the steps to heaven follow. Patrick has been welcomed into His kingdom by all those who went before him, now he will wait to welcome you. I will see you when I return to the beach, until then know our prayers are with you....now and for always. Our love, our hugs, and our friendship. Marlene and George Orr, your Kewaunee connection.##imported-begin##George Orr##imported-end##

May 22, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ Mr. and Mrs. Henry, I pray for your strenght and understanding during this unimaginanable and difficult time. I pray for comfort and peace for your hearts, knowing that Patrick is in Heaven, where I know not the biggest catfish or 12 point could even temp him into leaving now. He has walked through those gates smiling as he always does and he is shining in the glory of our Dear Lord. He will be missed so deeply and I find comfort in knowing that great smile, rosey cheeks and a big hug is waiting on me when I receive the blessing of reaching Heaven. Patrick had many dreams and plans here and it is so sad they were left undone but his biggest and greatest accomplishment is that he lived everyday being true to himself and being the best he had to offer to everyone around him. I owe many smiles and one last dance to my beautiful friend and I promise I will hold him to it when I join him in Heaven. With sincerity and love my prayers and thoughts will be given wholeheartedly to the Henry family always. I will never forget. Patrick taught me a new way to tie a catfish line, how to dance Conway style, how a cute four legged pal named Hank could truly be a man's best friend, how cute an orange T-shirt with denim overalls really is but truly he taught me the importance of respecting, sharing and appreciating life and our many blessings, to live by Faith and know that all will come together in God's time. He was always about kindness and love!!!What an amazing son you raised and he was so PROUD to be Moma's boy and loved his family so much. With the amount of love he was given I understand why. If there is anything I can do please do not hesitate to ask. With loving thoughts and prayers, Heather Martin##imported-begin##Heather Martin##imported-end##
