“ My sincere condolences and prayers to the family and friends. John and I worked together for 12 years and if it wasn't for him, I would not be where I am in my career today. I am still stunned he is no longer with us. He will be missed dearly. I last chatted with him on Father's Day as we always exchanged pleasantries on that day. He was a good man. My prayers to everyone. Jesse Thomas

“ We were shocked and saddened to hear of John's passing. We worked very closely with John for the best part of thirty years. He was kind and gentle, loved to joke around and laugh, and was always eager to help his coworkers and customers. He led a group of IT professionals who loved and respected him because he was loyal and supportive. Our condolences go out to his wife, children, grandchildren, extended family and friends, in the hope that as the grief fades, a quiet comfort will settle in, knowing that he is in a better place. He will be sorely missed by everyone whos lives he touched. Rest in peace old friend.

“ To John's Family - as evident in the messages left here, John had an enormous impact on his FAA co-workers and employees. To say that he made a difference here is an understatement. Although I only worked with him a short time before his retirement, it was easy to see how important he was to our team and the positive impact he made to the mission. He was loved and will be missed by everyone. My condolences to you all for the loss of such a great man.

“ This really hurt my heart. I worked with JP for years here in HQ, and I don't think I've ever met a more genuinely pleasant and kind individual. He always called me "Big Guy," and we frequently joked about one of his favorite TV shows. JP helped me get out on the golf course when I decided to pick up the game, and I got to play with him after work a few times. He was soft-spoken with a smooth and quiet wit. Always pleasant and just a super nice guy. He was not only my go-to guy when we needed to resolve an issue; he was my guy on a personal level. JP will be dearly missed. Rest Well, Big Guy. My sincerest prayers and condolences to the Patterson family.
