“ Rick was a very kind and loving person. Though I had lost touch with him, he was often in my thoughts. During our times together in the 1970' and 1980's, he was a regular part of our circle of friends playing tennis, riding our bikes, riding the boulevard in Myrtle Beach with Pat, Mike, my brother Gary and others. There were also hours of playing the guitar and singing Beatles tunes. Rick had a very strong faith in God and I know at this very moment his is in the welcoming arms of his Lord, Jesus Christ. I will pray for you, his family and all his friends who have loving memories and will miss Rick. Ken and Mary Thomas###imported-begin###Ken and Mary Thomas###imported-end##

“ Mrs. Todd, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Rick. I am living in Greenville S.C. now and after living in Virginia for 16 years, It had been quite awhile since I had been in touch. Rick was a sensitive guy with a big heart, but he suffered alot and now he won't have to deal with that anymore. I hope you will find peace in knowing he isn't suffering any more.
