“ My prayers are with all of you. Uncle Robert was always so kind to me and others. I can just imagine Aunt Peggy greeting him in Heaven by saying..well, it took you long enough to get here. They loved each other more and more as the years went by. She told me once that she loved him more than she did when they got married. I know that he will be missed by so many. Don't ever forget how much he loved all of you. Love, Gail###imported-begin###Wanda Gail Smith###imported-end##

“ Dear Renee, Robin & Rebecca, I am so sorry. He was such a sweet man. I remember so many good things about Uncle Robert. The way he quietly handled living in a house full of females was amazing. During those special summers that I spent with you he was always so kind to me. He showed me what a dad was suppose to be. I remember one morning when my husband and I stopped by the motel to visit. He and Aunt Peggy showed me all the latest pictures of the grandchildren, they were both so proud of all of you. I believe he is in a better place now, probably fishing from a perfect river, young and handsome again with Aunt Peggy by his side. Patiently, waiting too see you again. I love you all.
