“ Susan and family, I was shocked to recently learn of Buzz passing away. In my 23 years of a friendly business association with him, he was both a scholar and a gentleman. I will always recall his booming voice when he called into the office. I know that he will be sorely missed, by his family, business associates, and the entire jewelry industry along with your local community. He is sure to be in Heaven, as he was one of the most ethical people I had the esteemed pleasure of knowing. May the grace of God give you comfort.##imported-begin##Margaret Sibrizzi##imported-end##

“ Mrs Darden, Stuart, and Elizabeth, My mom called me the other day to say that Mr Darden had passed, and I wanted to let you know that I'm thinking about you. I'm so sorry for your loss. It's been so long since I've seen any of you, but I wanted to tell you that I've always thought you have such a wonderfully sweet family. I have great memories of being at your house in Conway. One in particular that I think about often - it was Halloween. Elizabeth and I were in the bathroom talking about girl stuff and getting ready to go out trick-or-treating when Stuart jumped out from behind the shower curtain with a chainsaw and mask! I've never screamed so hard in my life, but everytime I think about that now I smile and remember the good old days in Conway. Thank you for sharing your family with me. In the days that follow, I hope that remembering the great impact that Mr Darden and your entire family has had on the community makes you smile as much as it makes me smile. Much Love Always, April##imported-begin##April Goldfinch Smith##imported-end##

“ To the Darden Family, I was very saddened to learn of Buzz's passing. I have had the privelege of knowing Buzz for 3 years before his passing, and we became friends immediately. I always had great conversations with Buzz at the SJO conferences. His business knowledage and good humor were always refreshing at these shows. The great part about Buzz was his handshake was his word. It is a great attribute that is rare in these times. He was a great man and we will all miss him very much. On behalf of myself and Quality Gold, we offer our sympathies and condolences to the entire Darden family.
