“ To Timmy, Mrs. White and the entire White family - I'm so very sorry about the loss of your dad and husband (and grandfather and great grandfather). We shared so many good times as kids. I remember we were in and out of eachother's houses and yards all the time. We were so lucky to have that childhood. I'm sure you'll miss him dearly.
With love,
Rachel

So sorry for your loss of your mom and dad. We just found this obituary today and we had no idea. So, so sorry. One of our favorite memories was when Jack and Betty came to visit us in Uxbridge, MA. We weren't around very much with family because Michael was a career Coast Guardsman. And we just lost contact. I liked Betty very much. She was my favorite cousin. I am the only Bradford still alive. Time goes by so fast. I sure hope your families are well. If any of Jack and Betty's family would like to contact us, we are in Uxbridge, MA (39 Kasey Court 01569) (508-779-0842). We'd love to hear from you. Sara Jane (Bradford) and Michael Slack.
