“ Aunt Nell and cousins, Just wanted to let you know that you have and will continue to be in my prayers. When I heard of Uncle John's homegoing, I was saddened but at the same time a little jealous because he has reached the beginning of the end of this journey; the place we all are striving to see one day. I am also reminded of all the times I spent in your home and how good the beans, rice and koolaid were....those are memories death can not destroy. When we see you all again, let's promise each other to open the treasure chest of memories of our life with Uncle John.....he will be missed. “ Aunt Nell and all the Family, We were all so saddened to hear of Uncle John's passing, but find comfort in knowing he's reached the finish line we are all running towards ! He'll be there rooting us on to make it now. I have so many fond memories of Uncle John, but some of my favorite are of him singing and our mutual love of Gospel Music. I think Heaven's Choir just got a little louder now that he's joined in to sing. Aunt Nell - the next few weeks will be a real adjustment for you, but just know that our Love, Thoughts and prayers are with you and pray for His Strength to sustain you. Sorry were were not able to be there, but know that we love and miss you all. Love, Butch Wright & Family###imported-begin###BUTCH WRIGHT###imported-end###
