“ Dear Family, Uncle J, was someone that you could never forget. I met him over 59 years ago. I was a newly wed and not quite sure of myself, when I came to Aunt Maggie and Juniors home for the first time. I had married Randolph Johnson just days earlier. We arrived with a car load and we were met by a big crowd. Of all the people I met that day, Uncle Frank and Uncle J made the biggest impression on me. The were so warm and friendly they set my mind at ease. From that day coward I always felt welcome. We were no kin to the family, but always felt a special kingship because of those two. Uncle J you made Heaven just a little sweeter for us. I look forward to seeing you again. Thanks for the love you shared here on earth. I’m not sure if his girls and Mary Frances remember me, I’m Rebbly Johnson, widow of Randolph Johndon and daughter-in-law of Sallie Johnson
