“ To the family, I am so sorry for your loss. May the words of our Savior comfort you.
*John 14:1 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.
2. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. 3. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

“ I have had the pleasure of knowing this sweet wonderful woman for most of my childhood right on up into my adulthood. My Mother was a police officer in Aynor when Ms Johnnie Mae was Mayor.. They developed a close friendship over the years. I started working for her this year.. May to be exact.. And boy the stories that she told me while I was driving her to the farmers market.. She made me laugh so much during a time when I needed to cry and for that I thank her. She kisses me on my cheek that day and hugged me and told me she loved me and thanked me for helping her and that I was a wonderful girl.. I told her I loved her too and no need to thank me.. I told her she was the one who needed thanking for all she's done to better the community and the people in it including myself! I will miss her dearly fly high sweetie..

“ When I think of Ms. Johnnie Mae, one words come to mind, Gumption! I recall a visit with her a few many years back. A young teenager was working for her. He had been known to be somewhat of a handful. This young man worked at her produce stand and she also provided him a place to stay at her house so he wouldn't have to find a way to work. I had the chance to see her work with this young man and noticed that she was FIRM, but loving. The one thing I didn't notice from her remembered works was that Ms. Johnnie Mae was a teacher. Willing to take in a child who needed that extra something. She taught self respect. Her Motto, everybody needs a chance. I am very glad she took that chance. I know one or two that it made a difference with. My prayers for your family and my gratitude for the mark you have left on this wonderful little town.
