“ *I have been blessed to be Johnnie Maes friend for two years. Having time with her has been a joy and a privilege, going to lunch with her and Jo, spending time cooking and baking 😊 Her best times were when her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren would enter the room 😍. That's when her face would light up! Everything was family to her and she has the best, always there for one another. I know she is out of pain and in a better place but I already miss her smile!
God bless you all with fond and loving memories of a wonderful woman, Johnnie Mae ❤️ Betty 😊*
