“ I will always remember John's smile as he so happily opened the church door for me every Sunday morning and/or offered me "Smarties." If I was bringing Ms. Betty to church, he would head toward the entrance most convenient to her walker. I will also remember seeing him carefully patrolling the church and church grounds anytime the church was open for an activity. Rae Jean, I love and am praying for you and your family. Your husband was a good man and I look forward to seeing him again. Heaven continues to get sweeter as more of my friends and family arrive there.
