“ Tiffany and Neil,

"Where there is deep grief, there was great love."

We will forever remember the sweet and funny little boy who came to our house to draw, build with Legos, or play games. We loved him as much as he loved us. The one I taught in 5th grade that worshipped his family, loved his friends, and lived for baseball, hunting, and fishing. The impact he made on others is immeasurable. We will always love him and all he brought to our lives.

*We love you guys- always,

Tif, Neil, Ms. Lynda I cannot begin to take a breath to believe this. I still close my eyes and still have a knot front missing Spencer so much and now a huge piece of my heart is again in Heaven. As you know they were to me as much my babies as yours. I remember the first time I took both those babies on their first deer hunt and the first time Jonah played with all those pit bull dogs that he was not one bit afraid of and they loved him especially Buster, but we will keep that PG for this. I love you both so much and those boys were my heart string and I will pray with you every day for answers because I as well have lots of questions and I will pray for peace because I feel with you anger right now. I am right here for you if you need anything love and prayers
