“ To the Cox Family:

*The loss of a loved one is always devastating, but especially so, when that one is so very, very, young. Hold tight to cherished memories....Lean on each other for support....And look to God's Word, the Bible, for comfort and strength. 1 Peter 5:7 encourages;
"..throw all your anxiety upon Him, because He cares for you."*

My deepest sympathy, SJB.

“ Bonnie, Rene' ,Dean Eric and Families..
There are no words to express the sorrow I feel for you.. no one can really understand the pain you are feeling. Just know that there are so many that are praying that God will put His arms around all of you, and give you the strength ,and help you will need in the next days and beyond. You are in my thoughts and Prayers.

“ To Jason, Bonnie, Roger & Carol, Dean & Rene, JJ, Bonnie-in-Heaven, and all of Jonathan’s family,

It blows my mind that I am here writing a tribute in memory of Jonathan’s life. I know I am not alone in not believing that it is real, but unfortunately, it is very real.

I remember a Jonathan who...

- At age 14, asked me for advice on what to do when friends at school pressured him, and I hope I helped guide him in the right way;
- Made my first Mother’s Day as his “official” step-mom incredibly special;
- Was way smarter than even he gave himself credit for;
- Was one of the most creative people I have ever met and could carve a Halloween pumpkin like nobody’s business;
- Had a heart of the finest gold;
- Rather than looking at the clock to see what time it was, would judge his school departure time by running back and forth through the front door to look down the street to see if the school buses had run yet;
- At 17 years old, grabbed me and hugged me tightly, and said he wasn’t ready to graduate high school yet;
- Mowed the neighbor’s grass after her husband passed away;
- Looked up to his dad, even though they didn’t necessarily see eye-to-eye;
- Proudly displayed in his bedroom the cards and letters his mother sent to him; and
- Poured his heart and soul into the causes in which he believed.

This is the Jonathan Cox that I remember, still love, and will always love. Nothing else matters; life is just too precious.

I will continue to pray for all of you in this time of deep and inconsolable sorrow. I also pray that Jonathan is at peace, and is comforted in the arms of his family who have gone before him.

I met Jon years ago since him and my brother, Corey, were best friends. To them they were more than just best friends they viewed each other as if they were brothers, even acted like brothers. After our family moved away from South Carolina Jon would come spend time with us almost every summer and Jon and Corey always made plans to make sure they saw one and other at least once a year. It is amazing how the two of them made sure they talked, and visited. Even after not seeing each other for long periods of time when they were together it was as if nothing had ever changed, like time never went by. Jon was an amazing person with witty, humor, kindness, and a great out look on life. He stood up for what he believed in and did not follow what every one else was doing he had a mind of his own. My heart goes out to his family and the ones who were truly close to this amazing guy! Any one that has had the pleasure to have known him has been touched by Jon and he has left footprints in all our lives!

*May you rest in peace Jon you will always be missed by so many.

Every time that I see a dragonfly I know that it's you. I can just feel your warm spirit whenever one lands on me or flies by. I am so sorry for how I let our friendship fall apart because I couldn't deal with my personal issues and I blocked everyone I knew out of my life. I have always regretted that, and will for the rest of my life. Jon, you were truly my best friend and I didn't realize that until it was much too late and I would give so much to go back in time and fix things. You had such a warm heart, warm soul, and warm smile and you made me truly happy. You were always there for me when I needed you. I have always been grateful for that.

I will always remember the first day we met and we realized that we both loved the same bands and had the same goofy personality. I could never be mad at you; I could never judge you.

I looked for your grave recently so I could say all of this in person, but I couldn't find you. I sobbed deeply into my hands when this happened, because I miss you so terribly as so many other people do.

I love you, Jon, and I know you are in another, awesome place just being happy, being you, and listening to the Aquabats. Please forgive me.
