

Jonnie Evelyn Corcoran

June 8, 2010

Evelyn Corcoran, 82, beloved wife of Claude William (Corky) Corcoran, went home to her Lord and Savior on Tuesday, June 8, 2010, at home in Conway, South Carolina, after a lengthy illness. Evelyn was born in Columbus, Georgia, daughter of the late John Wesley and Evie Lovett McLain. She and Corky were married in January 1944. They resided in Florida for many years, and in Virginia, before settling in Conway in 1988. Evelyn is survived by her husband, Corky; daughters, Marge Corcoran Brodahl (husband Gary, Fort Collins, Colorado) and Christine Corcoran (Beasley) (Ottawa, Canada); two grandchildren, Jeff and Jan Beasley (Canada); her brother and sister-in-law, Ben and Ann Smith (Pawley's Island); and four nieces. Evelyn was much loved and her family will greatly miss her warm and loving spirit. Evelyn was active in her Christian ministry as a Sunday school teacher and, together with Corky, loved to bring devotional readings and music to many seniors in the area. She was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church, Conway, and the Kiwanis Club of Conway, and had attended Coastal Carolina University. The family is grateful to all the nurses and caregivers who helped to care for Evelyn during her illness—especially the nursing and hospice staff of Tideland Hospice of Georgetown—and for the kindness and support of friends and church members. Visitation will be on Friday, June 11, from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm at Goldfinch Funeral Home, 606 Beatty St., Conway. A funeral service will be held on Saturday, June 12, at 2:00 pm at Trinity United Methodist, 198 Long Ave., Conway, with the Reverends Kirk Lawton, Carl Hunsucker and John Winn officiating. Private burial after the service. Online condolences may be offered at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com. Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel is in charge of arrangements.
