“ My sympathy and prayers to Jordan's family; looking at his picture is like looking at Danny when he was growing up across the street from us. I remember when Danny & Jimmy cut the grass on our lawn and would never take a penny for doing so, because they had been taught by their parents that "these are your neighbors". May God's peace be with you at this difficult time. -- Joyce Farra Childers, Joy, Charles & Keilee

“ Lisa and family I am so sorry for your loss. I will always cherish the memories of our road trip to WV. The many times Jordan watched over and played with E. Jordan always made everyone feel welcomed and loved. I love you all so much and all my thoughts and prayers are with you.

Love,
Steph

“ To all of Jordan's family and friends,
I am truly so sorry for your loss. I had only met Jordan briefly a couple of times, but the way my niece Misty (his first cousin) and everyone else talks about him, he most surely was a wonderful young man. I know you all will miss him terribly.
Just take comfort in knowing he is in heaven with his granddaddy
Thelmer and you will see him again.

Much love to all of you,

“ Jordan was one of my best friends who came from such an amazing family, he was always bringing joy to those around him. I have always looked up to him and his family because every time you were around them you felt as if you were surrounded by love. He brought out the best in me. I remember playing football with him, we called him biscuit, and he would drink about 5 red bulls before the game and then again at half time haha. It didn't matter if we won or lost, he'd always lift our spirits. I'll forever miss you buddy and I look forward to seeing you again. God bless you and your amazing family.

“ My deepest sympathy to his young wife and step son, his parents and other family members, I remember Jordan as a child growing up a couple of streets over from us and as Lakin's little "boyfriend" (they were about 5), then through various sports and school functions. He was always a sweet the boy and I am sure he grew up to be a good man. It is very sad to loose someone so young and full of life, but I am positive that loss here is Heaven's gain. Please know we are lifting you all up in prayer. Mike and Angie Saunders

“ so sad that such special person like that was taken from us so soon at such a young age. Jordan you will never be forgotten and always in our hearts.
and i was reading the obituary and no where on it does it say anything about his loving wife, Allison DINGESS! i thought they usually come 1st! i know they loved each other more then life its self they were more then 2 peas in a pod. the way Jordan looked at her was so special. when you walked in a room that them 2 were in you could see and feel the love between them. now she has her own special guardian angel. i am so sorry Ally for your tremendous loss, your such a dear friend to me and EXTREMELY strong women. i love you both, and Ally I'm always here for you. keep your head held high and remember his beautiful smile when your feeling down.

This is a really low thing to do at a time like this. This is my family and you need to watch what you say because it's hurtful! Only time will tell what happened so until then keep your hateful comments to yourself! Thanks!!

“ When Lakin and Jordan were in kindergarten they became friends and their first crushes! In November 1996 Lakin was diagnosed with cancer and chemo made her hair fall out. Jordan didnt care. He was the first to sit beside her always smiling, and the first to sign any card or gift. I even had Jordan and Lakins kindergarten pictures taped to her bed in the hospitals so she could see him . When Lakin wa better, they liked to hang ut at the creek that was between our houses. One day he crossed the creek to come to our house and fell in. Everyone had a good laugh. We truly loved him!
