

Joseph Anthony Holmes

April 16, 2007

Joseph Anthony "Tony" Holmes, age 56, of Carolina Farms Blvd., went home to be with Jesus on Monday, April 16, 2007. Mr. Holmes was born in Conway, SC, a son of Joseph Elwood and Madeline Inman Holmes. He was a 1969 graduate of Conway High School where he played football. While playing football he participated in the Shrine Bowl and the North & South All-Star games in 1969. Mr. Holmes attended the University of South Carolina on a football scholarship and later graduated in 1974. He retired from the Horry County Auditors Office and was a member of Langston Baptist Church. Mr. Holmes was a good father and grandfather and had a family that loved him very much. Surviving in addition to his parents of Conway are: a son, Joseph Anthony Holmes, Jr. and wife Leigh of Conway; a daughter, Amy Rebecca Wisdom and husband Tim of Richmond, VA; two grandchildren, Charlie Holmes, Chase Holmes both of Conway; a brother, Richard E. Holmes and wife Gail of Myrtle Beach; a nephew, Garrett Holmes; a niece, Lauren Holmes both of Myrtle Beach; and girlfriend, Jan Brown of Aynor. A funeral service will be held at 11:00 AM Thursday, April 19, 2007 from Langston Baptist Church with Dr. Barry Crocker and Dr. Randall Jones officiating. A committal service will be held following the funeral service in Hillcrest Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 6-8 PM Wednesday at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Langston Baptist Church Bldg. Fund, 763 Hwy. 905, Conway, SC 29526.

“ I remember him well. We were punished for humming a song while Mrs. Powell taught class. Our punishment was to stand and sing aloud the song that we hummed. "We fired our guns and the British kept a coming, but there weren't quite as many as there was before." Love and remembrances, Howard Burroughs.##imported-begin##Howard Burroughs##imported-end##
