Keith was a kind and loving cousin who is associated and entwined with my memories of growing up in the Oakdale Baptist Church community in the 60s. Rest in peace, Keith.

“ Tammy...I am praying for comfort, strength and peace for you now and in the days to come. You've had a heavy load for quite a while. I have such wonderful memories of Keith. Daddy loved to pick with him so good! Biscuits and chicken bones in his coat pockets! And Keith was always such a good sport. He will always be Keiffer, my Rabbit Eater!! Love you girl!!
