“ Dear Joe & Family, I just learned the sad news about your Father. Unfortunately for me I never had the pleasure to ever meet him but know that he served our country during WWII and that his service and sacrifice is what made our country so great. His is passing is surely a great loss to you, the family and those who knew him. I wish all of you the very best in this time of sorrow. Please know you are in our thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Jim Cantey##imported-end##
