

Mr. Joseph Norton Cox

September 6, 1935 - January 4, 2017

Joseph Norton Cox, age 81, passed away Thursday, January 04, 2017 at his residence.

Mr. Cox was born in the Loris area of Horry County a son of the late Dexter Elyba and Mary Frances Wilson Cox. In addition to his parents, he was also preceded in death by his sister Frances Virginia Winburn.

Mr. Cox was a proud veteran of the US Air Force and also the US Navy. His fondest military memories are with the Seabees as a Construction Electrician. He retired early in his career from illness with the Horry County Police Department where he served as a Detention Officer for 13 years. Mr. Cox loved taking long rides just about anywhere and seeing the sites. He will be remembered for his humor that made you smile.

Mr. Cox loved his savior Jesus Christ and believed in Him to the end.

He is survived by his son Jody Cox of the home and his niece Carmella Dewberry (Phil) of Kathleen, GA.

Funeral services will be held at 3:00 PM Friday, January 06, 2017 at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel with Rev. Lindsey Inman and Rev. Dennis Lewis officiating.

Burial with military honors will be held at Carter Cemetery.

The family will receive friends one hour prior to the funeral service at the funeral home.

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel is serving the family.

Wow Jody. I am blown away. I just found out. I, too know how you are feeling. Our family has certainly shared many great laughs at Uncle Elyba and Aunt Mary's home when we were growing up with Joe and my Dad. You know it's true. Great, precious memories we will always have. Please know I am so sorry and you are in my thoughts and prayers. Love you my cousin...
