“ I will always remember how to spell Joey's name...I can hear him saying it now..."echo, bravo, bravo, echo, november". I bought a set of weights from Joey a long time ago. Noah was a little thing in diapers but he was grabbing weights and bringing them to us (strong like his Dad). Joey was a good man. I just found out about this and I am truly sad. I always looked forward to seeing him, which has only been a few times since Thorny's. I wasn't aware he was managing at Buffalo Wild Wings and I wish could have stopped by and saw him. With prayers and deepest sympathy...Craig.

“ I am very sorry for your loss. Although I did not know Joseph, I know how it feels to lose someone you love and for that reason I want to extend my sympathy and share a few thoughts that have brought me comfort. Psalm 34:18 says that God cares very much when we are broken at heart. Isaiah 25:8 mentions a time when He will swallow up death forever and wipe all the tears from our faces. To have the hope that soon there will be nothing that will cause us pain can help us get through difficult times like this. (John 5:28,29; Psalm 37:11,29) It is my wish you will find comfort and hope from these thoughts from the Bible.

“ When someone like you is born, you know there will be a million smiles because nobody could help themselves when they looked at you. When someone like you is born, you know there will be laughter abound because your sense of humor knew no limit. When someone like you is born, you know there will be feelings of joy and contentment because when we were around you Joey, it's what we felt. When someone like you is born, you know there will be a million tears because we've lost you and it's all grief can give us. When you were born sweetheart, we knew love. Sadly missed by your Aunt Terrie.....one of those smiles shine because we know we'll see you again. Hugs Darlin'

“ Joey, We had the best times hanging out with the old gang in Jacksonville. So many great memories. You had the sweetest smile and spirit. I know we are only here on this earth for a moment and heaven is just a step away. There is no distance in the spirit so I know you are still close to all who love you. Hug Mom for me and we will see you soon. Love always. Jennifer Williams

“ Joey - I dont know where to start. I miss you so much. You were a true angel on earth. You could make me laugh harder than anyone. If I knew that Saturday was the last time I would ever see you again , I would have never let you walk out that door. I am truly honored that I got to be a part of your life and was blessed to be so close to you. The apartment just isn't the same without you in it..Bryan and I love you so much. I can't wait to see you again one day . Watch over us please <3

“ Joey was great guy and was like a brother. I first meet Joey and Brian when I started at Buffalo Wild Wings In North Myrtle Beach. I had to go to Carolina Forest Buffalo Wild Wings for few weeks and we just became friends we came up with diff foods to eat because the regular food was just regular! we worked together few weeks ago because another manager went to Wilmington for training so Joey came to North Myrtle Beach Store. We argued ever day we worked who was going to be in the kitchen lol! Of course we made new things with the regular food :) few days b4 he was going back we got steaks and stuffed clams and scallops with wrapped bacon so we had feast and employees joined in! Joey I will miss you and never forget you and I defendant i hope to meet your family, sister and father etc.....
R.I.P Joey

“ Joey I'm going to miss you so much you were my only brother I had left. Now I don't have anyone to argue with anymore Ricky doesn't have anyone to fight with when you come to dad's house. Johnathan I'm not sur how he is going to take it since he was the one closest to you. All he has talked about his how when Uncle Joey is coming back to NC we are going to go and do this and this. I love you so much now your in heaven with you buddy (papa), nana, PJ, Momma & the rest of our angles in heave I love you so much I would always tell you bye love on the and that was the last time I got to say bye love you.

“ Joey was always someone I was looking forward to seeing on my way to work at Thorny's. He cared about all his employees in ways that he always went beyond to make sure we were all ok, and if we needed anything from him, he would never hesitate to be as helpful as he could. There were times that the whole crew at Thorny's were truly a family, we even hung out outside of work. After Thorny's at Conway closed down, we stayed very close and he just told me the day before he died that if I needed anything, because I was having a bad day, that he would always be here for me. He even left me a message the night before he passed telling me how serious he was about me and my spouse of 10 years to come to him if we needed anyone to talk, I invited him over this week, with another friend Janice, Janice did show, but there was no Joey. I know the kind of person he was a little ruff on the outside but on the inside he had a heart of gold, and I always saw that. He will leave a huge dent in my heart, he was just too young, and such a great father. Joey and to family I love all of yall for bringing him into this world to touch so many people....

The light of a good person's life shines high,
Golden and splendid
Long after his brief earth years are ended.
