“ I was saddened to hear of the demise of Mr. Harry but also realize he's now in a much better place! As a young girl I attended Sweetwater Branch Church with several of you. Not only was your Mom and Dad great friends with mine, my Father also worked with Mr. Harry at Santee Cooper. I remember so many of you very vividly even though I was young. We were in Sunday School and church together. My father, Rev. Albert Cannon was ordained to preach and your mom and dad and so many of you were n attendance! My Mother, Lois Cannon was very close to Mrs. Lib! My mom and dad both are now in heaven and I am so thankful for my Christian parents. I am so thankful for these wonderful memories I have of this family. My prayer is that God will great u comfort today & in the difficult days ahead! Love & best wishes to you & yours, Judy Cannon Singleton 🙏

“ So sorry to hear of Mr. Harry's passing, I have known him about 35 years, He was just such a nice man. He bought flowers from us at King's Florist. He always got Ms. Lib 3 red roses. He would sign the card "a red rose for yesterday, today and tomorrow".” My deepest sympathy to all his family

“ Dear Aunt Lib, Gwen, Patty, & Benny, I'm so very sorry to learn of Uncle Harry's passing. Without him, we would have even been born. Dad and him were best friends, and mom agreed to a double date with Lib...the rest is history. We always enjoyed seeing him and Aunt Lib. Because of the virus, I didn't want to stop and visit, possibly risking everyone's health. I look each time I pass and knew too many cars were in the yard. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Praying God gives you peace and comfort.
