“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ I worked for Grove Manufacturing from 1978 to 1984 in several positions. I often saw Ron Null out and about the plant. He was well liked and was always willing to help where ever he was needed. I know that he will be missed by all of you. May the good Lord be near to you during this difficult time. That's a great picture of Ron.

“ Ron was such a great man and 1 I looked up to! He always had a smile on his face and would always make you feel welcome. I first met Ron when I got out of the army and moved back to Myrtle Beach when I went to work at P&H Cranes in Conway. I got to know the family better when we all bowled together on Tuesday Night at Northgate lanes in the company bowling league. Ron and his family were strong in bond and love and they never met a stranger. Even though I moved to Lexington in 2006 every time I would run into Ron and the family they would always make you feel a part of the family. I last spoke to Ron at Tanya and Chases wedding and we shared conversations of family, bowling and music. It was great to share time with him and memories I will always cherish. God has truly gained an angel and I look forward to seeing him again in heaven when we can lase up those shoes and bowl a few games with him and David as well! The Null Family is a strong family and is loved by many and Gods love will give all of you strength to make it through this difficult time and be assured Ron is preparing the home for you in Heaven and we will all see him in glory!! All our Love!
