“ In 1958, my parents rented a house from Mr. Mac Todd, I was 6 years old. One day Mr. Joe and Benny Strickland came to the house to visit, Moma and Daddy, and I was playing with my hula hoop, and they wanted to try it. They were hilarious. That was my first encounter with Mr. Joe, from then, til we moved away, they would visit us and I never forgot them and the hula hoop. After, I grew up I saw him a few times and he was always the most pleasant person. REST IN PEACE, Mr. Joe. May, the Lord our God, be with you all his family.

I'm so sorry for your loss. Joe used to come to my office to talk to my boss about the veterans events that they were both so passionate about. While he waited he would tell me how much he liked hearing me sing in the choir and sometimes I'd sing him a preview of what we were practicing. He was so kind to me and I appreciated him.

“ My dad Lane was working for Mr Joe when I was born in 1970. I do remember him somewhat back when I was 4-5 years old. My dad came back to work in the mid 90's til 2013. Mr Joe was a intelligent & a hard working man. He loved God & he loved his church. He loved his dear wife Ms Dolly, his children & his grands. He just loved people. Especially meeting with his friends down at the meeting house or J&J in the morning shooting the breeze. May his legacy of friendship remain in our hearts to be better people. We love you family & Ms Dolly❤️
