“ Joey loved family deeply and shared with me his joy over being a new grandfather just weeks ago. He proudly showed me a photo of Adam's little girl and told how much he was relishing this new role. For all who knew Joey you were aware of his care and dedication to his boys, Gay and Joe Bill. A son who gladly cared for his mother, Vera ,during her difficult and long illness. I remember how glad he was to be able to have the time to care for her and be of a help to Vera and Joe Bill. He never seemed resentful or put upon ,just honored to be able to assist. He would have done anything in this world for Gay, his sister and was always there for her. They had an unusually close bond. We had a wonderful reunion every year as our families reunited at the beach each summer. This summer Joey seemed happier and better than I had seen him in years. Joey leaves a great void which each of us will miss. A legacy of dedication and loyalty to family and friends alike. I give thanks for the life of Joey Holliday Holliday, my cousin.##imported-begin##Mary Laney Tatum##imported-end##

“ Joey was truly a fantastic guy. My family and I enjoyed reconnecting with our dear friend in Myrtle Beach in June. He had not changed a bit...his beautiful blue eyes and warm heart were just as we remembered from many years ago. He spoke of his love for his sons and his adoration over his granddaughter...she was truly the light of his life. We were just so very sorry to hear of Joey's death.
My heart goes out to his family. You will all be in our prayers. We loved Joey dearly and will always consider him one of the finest and most admirable men we have known. He had such a good heart and such great character. He will be missed, but we feel so blessed to have known him.##imported-begin##Mandy and Ron
