“ I knew Joe back in my heydays at Penn State in Happy Valley and student-taught with him outside of Philadelphia. I lost touch with him but never lost the memories of good times we shared. Joe was a good man...hip and generously funny. His death doesn't diminish him.

“ I learned only recently of Joe's passing. He was a great man and helped me in my career progression at Fayva Shoes back in the mid 1980's in Colorado. In the time I spent with Joe, I truly saw a caring and kind spirit. I loved his sense of humor too. I will always remember what he did for me. Rest in peace.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ Joe was hilarious! I always enjoyed our time together. He promoted me to a store leader which I'll never be able to thank him enough for that. I'll never forget him giving me suggestions to all the best bars of charleston and the best places to live. He taught me so much about life and Payless. He always spoke fondly of his family during our store visits and how proud he was of them and their newest adventures. You all will be in my prayers. Never forget, God will never give you more than you can handle and time heals all pain.

“ To Joes family,

I worked with Joe for many years at Payless. We were always room mates on meeting trips. I will miss him and my prayers are with you all in this time of great loss.

God bless

“ I was saddened to learn of Joe's passing. I knew him from many years at Payless and always found him to be a good person to be around. He was very down-to-earth and willing to listen to all. I pray that his family can find some comfort in knowing that he will be missed by many who were honored to work with him.

“ Joe loved live. He was my district leader for 10 years. He believed in me and was the one who promoted me to be a store leader. He was there for me especially those darks days of my life. He gave me good advised and hope. Joe loved his family. During his store visits he always had something new to share about his family. He was very proud of them. To Shelly and her family you are always in my prayers.
