“ Some of my early memories of Joe were in the 2nd Grade and Cub Scouts where we terrorized all our other class mates with our pranks and jokes. What a joy it was to "rebond" with him these last twenty years. Joe had a lot of different talents that he was very good at...but I think his best was connecting with people and his family. I can only image what he would have accomplished with another 20 years. Miss you much and I Love You Buddy!##imported-begin##Tony S. Pineyro##imported-end##

“ I was sad to open my e-mails today and learn of the passing of Joe. He was a great person and a friend to everyone he met. As we had the same last name, we were often placed together in classes and assemblies during our years together in school. I deeply regret your loss and will keep you in my prayers.##imported-begin##Doug James##imported-end##

“ Sandra, Lee, Chanan, Ms. Betty, Karen & Bill; \tAfter time, the hurt of losing Joe will lessen, but the memories that you each have of him will last forever. Although we may never understand why God takes someone away from us, I envision that he had something special intended for Joe. \tI will always remember Joe for his pleasant personality, his compassionate nature and his ability to build or repair almost anything. He will be deeply missed by everyone who knew him. I know that I will continue to think of him every time I cook a Dirt Turkey. ##imported-begin##Robert Shelley##imported-end##

“ Sandra and family, Please know that our hearts go out to you and your family in this time of grief. Joey was a wonderful person and will be missed by all. God has a reason for everything He does and it is not for us to know why. We have to trust in God and believe He will see us through these hard times. John 16:33 reads "These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." Joey had his tribulations, but he has overcome the world and is now at peace. Your family is in our prayers. We love you all!##imported-begin##Dan, Tammy and Kayla Howell##imported-end##
