“ Dear Mr. and Mrs. Allen..I know that it has been a year since you lost your precious son, and as time goes by, your pain is still just as it was then..time does lessen it some, but not your love and acking for him to still be here with you...I know that he is still close to your hearts, and always will be...I didn't know Joshua, and he didn't know me, but I do think of him very often...you see, I was the one that was behind him on that terrible day...I'm a Nurse, and was coming home from work that terrible morning..I stopped to see if I could help...A Highway Patrolman just happened to be coming from the other way, and we were there with him...I just want to let you know that I prayed for him that day, and for you...God bless you and keep you safe....JoAnne Moody Cusaac, Florence, S. “ May God bless the Allen family during this time. To Mrs. Renee, thanks for being a great teacher and friend during my time at Richard Winn. To Bro. Larry, thanks for being a friend to all of us. Josh was a great friend to all who knew him. He is now in the presence of the Father, worshipping Him for eternity. As the Apostle Paul reminds us: To be absent from the body is to be present from the Lord. I love you guys and pray for you daily.##imported-begin##Rev. Scott Adams##imported-end##

“ Rev. & Mrs. Allen: Joshua and our son Jeffrey were Clemson University friends. Our son has described Joshua as his first friend at Clemson and they attended First Baptist of Clemson together during their undergraduate years. I had the occasion to have dinner with Joshua with Jeffrey and remember him as a delightful young man. My wife Susan and I are praying for you and your family. From what Jeffrey has shared with us about yesterday's service Joshua's impact on others was huge. Our deepest condolences. Anyway, there is nothing I can say to ease the loss you are feeling. Only that I can't and don't want to imagine what it feels like, Ally was bad enough. We can only take comfort in knowing that God is in control, even though it's hard to accept at times. We can only thank God for the wonderful blessings he gives us in the first place, rather than being mad when He brings them home. “ Renee, Larry and Leah, Uncle Clyde called mother yesterday with the news. I am so sorry. It is unfortunate that we had to get together only at times like this. As you know, Daddy just passed away Jan 13, his funeral was just Monday. I want you to know that you are in our prayers, I have placed the family on our prayer list at church. Let us know if you need anything. My number is 864-735-2345. Love and prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Pamela Hunter Alford##imported-end##

“ Larry, Renee and family: May you feel God's love even more during this time. Our love and prayers are with you and all your family. Our hearts cannot even imagine the pain, but you know that God knows all and will help you through this. We were at the revival the night Josh moved his membership. I can see what everyone is saying about his smile. It was beautiful. We love you, Ricky & Mona###imported-begin##Ricky & Mona Floyd###imported-end##

“ On behalf of the staff here, at The Lowcountry Food Bank, my thoughts and prayers are with the Allen Family. Psalm 27:4-5 One thing I ask of the LORD, this is what I seek: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to seek him in his temple. For in the day of trouble he will keep me safe in his dwelling; he will hide me in the shelter of his tabernacle and set me high upon a rock.##imported-begin##Shayla Livingston##imported-end##
