“ My dear friends Jerry and Marsha : My heart just breaks for you both. There is no words to say to make you feel better. I know we must put our faith in the Lord, but the pain and brokenness is still there. I don't think their is any greater pain than that of the loss of a child as long as we are still on this earth. I pray for you to be able to dwell in the wonderful memories of your children until that great reunion day in heaven

*Marsha and Jerry,
I send my deepest condolences and heartfelt prayers to both of you. I can so vividly remember you as young parents to your beautiful little boys at Nichols Baptist Church. That is how I will always see the four of you. And one day you will be together again. In the meantime, our love and prayers go out to you in your loss and grief. I am so very sorry.*

“ So sorry & sad to hear of the passing of Zane. As difficult as this is to bear, please take comfort knowing that he is now resting in peace in God's loving care. Loving thoughts are with Marsha.....my longtime high school friend....Jerry & the entire family. Almighty God, whose great power, love and eternal wisdom embrace the universe....watch over us and ease our pain when storms are upon us. Lord, help us conquer our own fears as we pray for courage, strength & faith. Precious God, have mercy in our despair and walk with us each day. We pray for your divine guidance & direction. Love you all.

“ Jerry and Marsha, May the Son of God give you perfect peace. Depend upon the Holy Spirit to give you the comfort you need. The Lord said, "Let not your heart be troubled." The Lord is the only one that understands the grief you are going through. Just trust Jesus. He will never leave you or forsake you. I will always remember the fond memories I had when I was your Pastor. The times we prayed for Zach. Now Zane is with Zach in Heaven having a glorious reunion. I love you both in Christ. Praying that something good will come out of this sorrow. We have to claim Romans 8:28. Blessings, Ricky Donaldson, Pastor of Northside Baptist Church, Bladenboro, N.C.

“ Dear Mr. Jerry and Mrs. Marcia, It has been so long ago it seems when we all lived there on the Old Mullins Rd. I miss our little neighborhood but almost all are gone now. I do hope you will find peace in this sad time and have great memories of Zane. IN the end, that's all we have anyway. Sincerely,
