“ I'm so sorry for your loss.

Although I knew who Joyce was from pictures and articles in the local Charleston/Mount Pleasant newspapers, I didn't get to meet her until we sat together at a scrapbook event in Myrtle Beach after she moved there. She had the funniest stories! And I love that she dared to do whatever she thought was fun, including standup comedy at the grilled cheese restaurant -- what a brave soul! Joyce definitely had a zest for life and a lot of self-deprecating, funny stories. I wish I'd met her sooner!

“ Donna and I were so sad to learn of Joyce's passing. We spent lots of great time with Joyce, Milt, and Luke on Isle of Palms years ago before we moved away. Joyce was a great friend who inspired us with her faith and compassion. We send our grace and peace to Milt and the family.

“ We were heartbroken to learn this morning of Joyce's passing. She and Milt have been such a positive force in our lives since we met as (relatively) "cute young couples" and young parents on Isle of Palms. She shared our passion for all things Christmas- no amount of decoration or tradition was too much, no carol was sung too many times. Every time we thought she could not get any more cool and interesting we would learn of another hobby or talent that she developed and shared. Her laugh was infectious. Her remarkable strength as a pastor, retreat host, engaged citizen, wife, mother, and parent was matched only by her endless capacities for love and resilience. To the bitter end she was writing, reflecting, and sharing. She never let cancer define her. In short, a life fully and beautifully lived in spite of many hurdles. Milt, Luke, and Ben - you are in our hearts as you complete this difficult chapter of your lives together. We hope to see you in Person at the burial in Charleston. Do not hesitate to call if we can provide on the ground support here in Mt Pleasant. Conway and Bart Saylor

“ SHE PUT THE JOY IN HER NAME OF JOYCE. A JOY TO BE AROUND IN FUN AND DIFFICULT TIMES. LOVER OF ALL THINGS GOOD AND NEVER A NEGATIVE WORD. I ALWAYS APPRECIATED HER INDEPENDENCE ,ESPECIALLY DOING HER OWN LAUNDRY. FUNNY AND OUTGOING, A PERFECT MATCH FOR MILT WHO IS QUIET AND DIPLOMATIC. MY HEART AND PRAYERS GO OUT TO HIM AS HE RESTS FROM THIS LOVING CAREGIVING EXPERIENCE. I WILL NEVER PASS A PANCAKE HOUSE IN OCTOBER WITHOUT THINKING OF JOYCE FIRST IN LINE FOR PUMPKIN PANCAKES AND ALL THINGS HALLOWEEN. I AM SURE SHE HAS MADE OUR LOVING GOD SMILE WITH HER PRESENCE. A GREAT WRITER AND WIT. FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS!

“ My deepest sympathies to Milton and the family of Joyce. I met Joyce at a scrapbook crop several years ago. She always brought smiles and laughter to the table. I loved talking to her! The stories she would tell! She was an amazing woman and I feel blessed to have known her. RIP Joyce.
