

Joyce London Meldahl

April 23, 2009

Pawleys Island Joyce L. Meldahl Joyce London Meldahl was born March 2, 1925 and died at MUSC in Charleston on April 23, 2009. Born in Sydney, Australia, the elder daughter of Lovina Ruth and Charles Leonard London, she is survived by her dearly loved and devoted husband of 38 years Edward Neill Meldahl of the home: sister, Lorna Barlow and husband Cecil Barlow; brother, Jack London predeceased; and sister in law, Vivienne, all of Sydney; three stepchildren, Malcolm, Virginia and Keith; three step grandchildren; sister in law Betty and husband, Dr. M. Gil Webb; brother in law, Robert Meldahl & wife Nadyne, and many nieces and nephews; and her beloved nurse/caregiver, Jerilyn D. Woodberry. Joyce was educated at St. George Girls' High School and Chartres Business College in Sydney, and then served for three years in the Women's Auxiliary Australian Air Force during World War II. A career in secretarial administrative positions followed, mainly with Columbia Films in Singapore, the Orient Line in Sydney, UNICEF in Thailand, Pediatric Psychology in Chapel Hill, NC and most recently with Litchfield Plantation and The Carriage House Club in Pawleys Island. She traveled widely, loved her family and friends dearly, and enjoyed life to the fullest. The family will hold services privately. Sign a guest book at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ I cannot begin to put into words how sad I was to see that Joyce had passed away. I worked with her at the Carriage House Club, Litchfield Plantation and enjoyed everything she taught me. I still to this day remember correct phrasing and punctuation lessons taught. It was an honor to work with her.##imported-begin##Christy Lynch Norman##imported-end##

April 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Under the wide and starry sky Dig the grave and let me lie Glad did I live and gladly die And I laid me down with a will. This be the verse you grave for me Here she lies where she longed to be Home is the swagman, home from the sea ,And the hunter home from the hill.##imported-begin##Patricia and Don Willcox##imported-end##

April 29, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Ted, we were so sorry to hear of Joyce's passing. She was a wonderful woman, full of life and joy, and she imparted her pleasure in each day to those around her.##imported-begin##Walter & Angela Kollet##imported-end##

April 28, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Ed, I live in the Heritage was so sorry to hear about Joyce. She knitted some blankets for me to be donated to needy newborns. I'm so happy she called me one day and I was able to "get to know her" over the phone. What a lovely, caring woman she was. Now she is at rest and you are in my thoughts & prayers.##imported-begin##Donna Scheeler##imported-end##

April 27, 2009 at 12:00 AM