“ I'm so sorry, in all of the confusion 2 of Joyce's grandchildren were omitted from the obituary. Emily and Andrew Liberatore should have been included.

“ I had the pleasure of having Joyce as my "second mom" growing up in Denville , NJ. She was never without a kind word and smile for all she encountered. She was a very kind and compassionate lady. My sincere condolences to all her family.

“ I met Joyce at NHC. My father and Bob were roommates for a while. She and I would spend our days visiting there. She always had a smile and was such a caring person. She would sit and do her crafts. I will always treasure the nice little things she made for me. My prayers are with the family! Mary Sedlack

“ My heart was broken when I heard of Joyce's passing. She and Bob were the first people to talk to us when we attended Belin for the first time. Bob chattered with us all during Mike's sermon and bragged about his wonderful wife that sang in the choir. Sweet Joyce soon became my choir buddy in the Alto section. I will miss her as will sooooo many people. What a wonderful legacy she leaves with so many people saying how much they loved her and what a difference she made in their lives. She will truly be missed! My condolences to the family. With my deepest sympathies, Cindy Senatore

“ Yesterday I lost a dear longtime friend and prior co-worker of many years. I'll hold onto the wonderful memories of all the good times we had together with Joyce and Bob. She was someone that I could laugh with...I will miss that.
But those memories will replace the sadness in my heart. Joyce was a wonderful person who was liked and loved by all. Her passing will leave a void in our lives, but she will always be in our hearts.
Our deepest condolences go out to all of her family members, and also her other friends who will miss her as much as we will.

With much sadness..but with much love, Dee Geidosch and George Leonard

“ May the family of Mrs. Joyce Weatherburn find comfort in your loving memories, and in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) He has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25;8) With deepest sympathy,

“*I am deeply saddened to hear this news and know without a doubt that she will be sorely missed! This world was a better place having her a part of it. Joyce always brought a smile to those around her and a good laugh with her countless stories and jokes! She was a lovely lady and a good friend and I will cherish my memories of times spent together. She is singing with the angels and whispering a good joke on the side! Both she and Bob were wonderful friends to me and I know that they share together in eternity. My thoughts and prayers are with her family in these days. May His spirit surround them in comfort and give them a peace that surpasses understanding. With fondest memories and deepest affection,
