“ Mrs. Juanita was one of our neighborhood moms. She loved us..fed us if we were hungry..and corrected us if we needed it. After I moved away I would always visit her when I came home and she always had something GOOD to eat. Maybe it was a cold biscuit and fat back or maybe it was a full meal. She really knew how to cook. She always had something sweet to eat for dessert. I have know her for 70 years. She was one of the Godliest women I have ever known.

“ She was Aunt Juanita to my family. She lived right behind me growing up. I always stopped by to see her, and she always smiled and had candy for us. I would sit with her for hours and just talk with her. She was truly an amazing woman.

“ Deepest sympathy to the family. She was our neighbour for 25 plus years. Our kids called her Grandma. We sat many a day in the yard talking. Thankful for her presence in our lives. She made a difference in this world just by being her. She will be missed. We shall meet again one sweet day! Prayers, love and condolences to the family!
