“ Jim, I will keep you and your family in pray. I know that this is a difficult time. But God will never put more on you than you can bear.
Just remember to take your rest in him and everything will become easier with a little time and distance. Val##imported-

“ I am so distressed to hear about Judy. We were in a writing class together for several years, and she added a dimension hard to describe. Her humor, wonderful stories about her life's experiences, and her love for her family kept us all enchanted. That little white-haired lady in her red bug made an imprint on everybody who knew her. It is comforting to think that she is with her Brad but we shall all miss her.##imported-begin##grace h.

“ Judy was unique. I introduced her to the knitting guild in Columbia. She in turn introduced me to Nancy Merrill and the world of beading for which I am grateful. I loved her and will miss her.##imported-begin##Millie Bowen##imported-end##

“ Our deepest sympathy to the Bradford family. Judy was a fun, loving and treasured member of the Palmetto Purlers. She designed our logo when we first organized 5 years ago. In true Judy fashion, it was a lady relaxing in a beach chair under a Palmetto tree with knitting in her bag. Several members would occasionally meet at her place to have lunch and enjoy her company when should could no longer make it to the meetings. They enjoyed her sharp wit and quick comebacks. Judy will always have a special place in our hearts.##imported-begin##Beverly Morris##imported-end##
